"Let the little children come to me" - Matthew 19:14

holic Virginian

Work makes you

re you, your friends, or your siblings going to camp this summer? There are sports camps, arts camps, adventure camps, and even science and tech camps. But have you heard of Work Camp?

Our diocese has one each summer for teenagers. It's one week where teens fix up homes for people who need help. The teens learn to listen, follow directions, and use power tools.

Most importantly, they learn to care about others the way that Jesus cares about all of us.

It feels good to work hard and see the results of your work. It feels even better to share God's blessings with others!

Try not to grumble when your parents ask you to do chores, or when your teachers assign work.

Always remember: work is holy when you do it for God!

• I prefer mustard on hamburgers and hot dogs and most of all on soft pretzels!

Is your favorite game a board game or a card game?

- Emily Hornick, 10; St. Bede, Williamsburg

• It has been some time since I've played anyboard or card games. The most recent card game I recall was poker with my brothers and friends from high school. I have also played Gin Rummy and Blackjack - though it has been a long time.

I played board games - like "The Game of Life" with my brothers and sisters when I was young. I also remember playing "Operation," which was fun until all the little pieces got lost. I loved "Mouse Trap" – which was also fun until the pieces got lost. Then, there was "Monopoly" - but again, there was a problem with the missing pieces! (They must have been eaten up by the vacuum cleaner!)
